

Gusto da Gianni

You have arrived.....Event planning at its best

I transitioned from the Prestige world of Christian Dior, Giorgio Armani and Yves Saint Laurent to Hospitality. I come from an Educator and Entertainment background and have substantial familiarity with aspects such as; business development, events, budget management, fashion shows, corporate and weddings.

Inherited a natural flair for leadership, creativity and the ability to see the beauty in all that is around me. To be successful in this industry, you have to have a passion, organizational skills, be detail-oriented and can multitask
